2009 Annual Report

Many people say that sexual assault is the silent crime; mostly because survivors of sexual assault are too ashamed to report to the police or come forward for help. The anonymous services provided by the Rape Crisis Center of Medina & Summit Counties encourage survivors to reach out for support, advocacy, and crisis intervention.

Direct Services to Sexual Assault Survivors and their families

425 family & friends of sexual survivors served

238 survivors supported through the legal system

113 women supported during evidence collection

388 survivors provided crisis intervention in the office

500 callers provided crisis intervention through the hotline

Over 1000 survivors of sexual assault served in 2009
